

Introduction
The December situation report focused on physical violence, conformity to the rule of law and hostile communication. Other incidents bordered on resignations and defection of various political actors from their parties to other parties to consolidate relevance and alliances in the lead up to the March 7 elections. On December 7, 2017 the National Electoral Commission released series of notifications and memoranda for the nomination of gubernatorial and parliamentary candidates, Parliament Clerk of Parliament, Mayors, District Chairpersons and Councils as well as the various nomination centers across the Districts in line with the Public Election Act of 2012. The fourth parliament was also dissolved the same
