

Air Vice Marshall (AVM) Christian Edem Kobla Dovlo (Rtd) was born on 16th May, 1950. He attended Mawuli School, Ho in the Volta Region of Ghana from 1962 to 1969 for both his GCE Ordinary and Advanced Level Certificates and proceeded to the University of Ghana in 1969 from where he graduated in 1972 with a B.A. (Honours) Degree in Political Science.

He is the immediate past Commandant of the Kofi Annan International Peacekeeping Center and was recently appointed the Chair of the Board of Ghana Civil Aviation Authority by the President of Ghana. While at KAIPTC, he spearheaded the setting up the academic section of the centre that now offers courses in Peace and conflict studies at both Masters and Doctorial levels.