

Rev. John Nkum is an Organization and Systems Development consultant. He is also a Development Planning and Project Management consultant. Rev. Nkum is the founder and Executive Director of Nkum Associates, a consultancy firm that has undertaken local and international assignments in the fields of organization and systems development, development planning and project management since 1992. He is also the Executive Director of Organization Development Centre-Ghana, a Non-Governmental organization that offers capacity development, training and coaching services to organizations and executives in Africa.

Rev. John Nkum holds a Masters Degree in Development Planning and a second Masters Degree as well as several professional/practitioner certificates in Gestalt Organization and Systems Development. He is also a practitioner of the gestalt approach to couples and family therapy, a member of the Founders' Circle of Gestalt Institute of Cleveland Organization and Systems Development Integrative Study Centre in Ohio, USA. Rev. Nkum is a Partner of the GestaltOD Partners LLC, a company registered in the US and offering OD and Leadership development programs internationally. He is a certified user of the Myers Briggs Type Indicator psychometric instrument.

Rev. Nkum is a member of the Membership Committee of the National Training Laboratory (NTL) of the USA. He is also a member of the OD Network (ODN), the International Association of Organization Development (IODA) and also of the Ghana Institute of Planners.

He is the Senior Associate Pastor of Tesano Baptist Church, Accra, Ghana.