

WEST AFRICAN NETWORK FOR REAGBILDING
West Africa's Early Warning and Response Program - Weekly Alerts and Present Security in West Africa

WEEKLY HIGHLIGHTS ON THE NIGERIA 2019 ELECTIONS
 WEEK OF 26 JANUARY TO 03 FEBRUARY 2019

Sl. No.	State of Incident	Incidents	Location	Primary/secondary targeted Population	Coping Mechanism/ response
1	Rivers	19-01-2019 ARSDF: The Independent National Electoral Commission's (INEC) office at Oyiigbo LGA in Rivers State was reportedly set ablaze by suspected hoodlums. Several chairs were reportedly destroyed in the incident as investigations have commenced to ascertain the real cause of the fire incident.	Oyiigbo, South South Region	• several properties including chairs destroyed	• following further investigations, the Resident Electoral Commissioner in the State, Mr. Olu Ojoje stated that the fire was as a result of electrical fault, such as the state Police Command has commenced investigations to ascertain whether the fire was ignited by accident or an electrical fault.

The Independent National Electoral Commission’s (INEC) office at Oyiigbo LGA in Rivers State was reportedly set ablaze by suspected hoodlums. Several chairs were reportedly destroyed in the incident as investigations have commenced to ascertain the real cause of the fire incident.