

NEWS Quick Update:- Flooding in the Greater Accra Region claims 12 lives on April 15, 2019

Written by WANEP

Wednesday, 17 April 2019 16:54 -

Following the recent rains that hit some parts of the country, 12 lives have been lost in the Greater Accra Region. Five persons reportedly perished on Monday April 8, 2019, in a downpour which lasted for about two hours and destroyed properties. The second rain which lasted about 3 hours, occurred on Sunday, April 14 th , 2019, with 7 people reported dead according to the National Disaster Management Organisation (NADMO).