Often when we talk about the actors and efforts that go into conflict prevention and peacebuilding work, the focus tends to be on Directors, program coordinators and managers and hardcore program areas such as: capacity building, lobbying and advocacy, mediation and policy influencing at various levels.