Women, Peace and Security: In spite of the popularization and implementation of the UNSCR 1325 and related instruments across the region, Gender-Based Violence (GBV) including rape, murder, beating/molestation and abduction of women and girls still remain issues of grave concern in the reporting period.