

Heavy rains for eight continuous days in the Upper East Region of Ghana have caused havoc, as a number people have lost their lives, several others injured, houses destroyed, while many others have been displaced.