

CRIME AND VIOLENT EXTREMISM: The second quarter of 2019 witnessed increasing insecurity in Burkina Faso as a result of terrorist, extremist and armed insurgencies in the communities. The critical concern has been the southward spread of attacks and its implications for coastal areas, particularly Benin, Ghana and Togo.