

MARCH 6, 2020

OUR STORY

THE COVERT PEACEBUILDERS: TWO PEOPLE WHO “DRIVE” WANEP’S WORK

By WANEP-Regional

Often when we talk about the actors and efforts that go into conflict prevention and peacebuilding work, the focus tends to be on Directors, program coordinators and managers, and hardcore program areas such as capacity building, lobbying and advocacy, mediation and policy influencing at various levels. However, in many instances, reaching our core objectives in these locations comes down to the professionalism and dedication of drivers and other support staff.

MICHAEL BASSO, DRIFT DRIVER

Often when we talk about the actors and efforts that goes into conflict prevention and peacebuilding work, the focus tends to be on Directors, program coordinators and managers and hardcore program areas such as; capacity building, lobbying and advocacy, mediation and policy influencing at various levels.